

The Indonesian Pediatric surgical Society (Perbani)

Survey for APSA presence at Perbani Annual Meeting

Perbani 25th Annual meeting

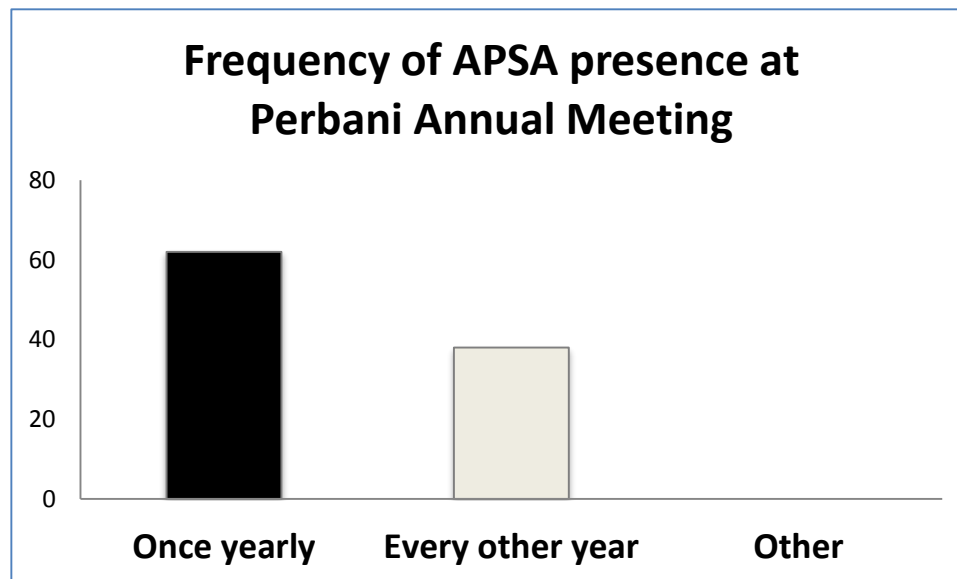

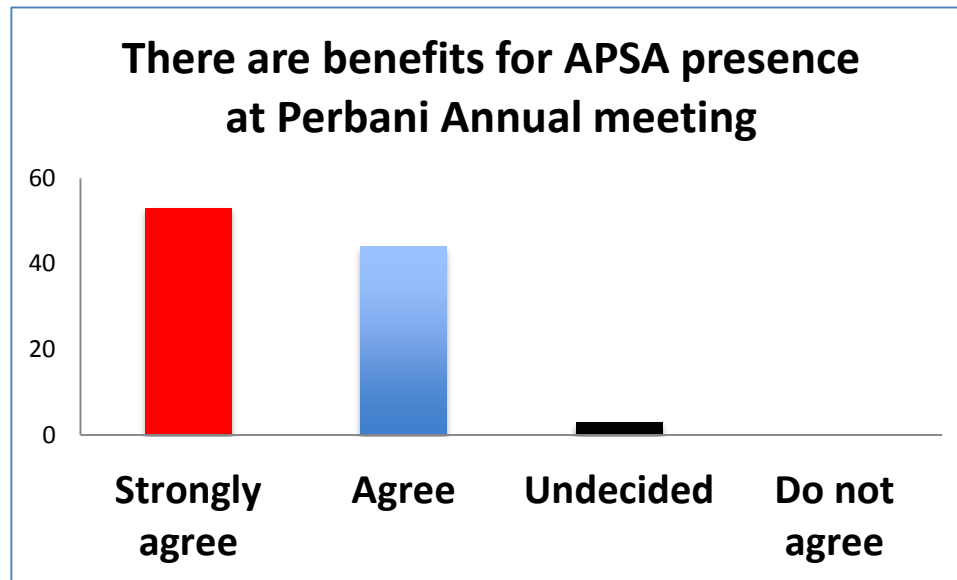

Samarinda, Indonesia

October, 2017

Responders' characteristics

- Overall membership of 125
- N= 40 at the meeting
- Median years in pediatric surgical practice: 4.5 (range 0-16)
- 20% are trainees
- 23% in some Perbani leadership role
- 43% have travelled to international pediatric surgery meeting
 - 8% outside Asia

RESULTS

Questionnaires

Rank in order of importance the joint program activities of interest to you (1 being highest, 5 being lowest)

- Review of best clinical practices
- Description of operative approaches
- Selected clinical topics
- Interactive clinical case management
- Quality and safety practices
- Other activities you are interested in

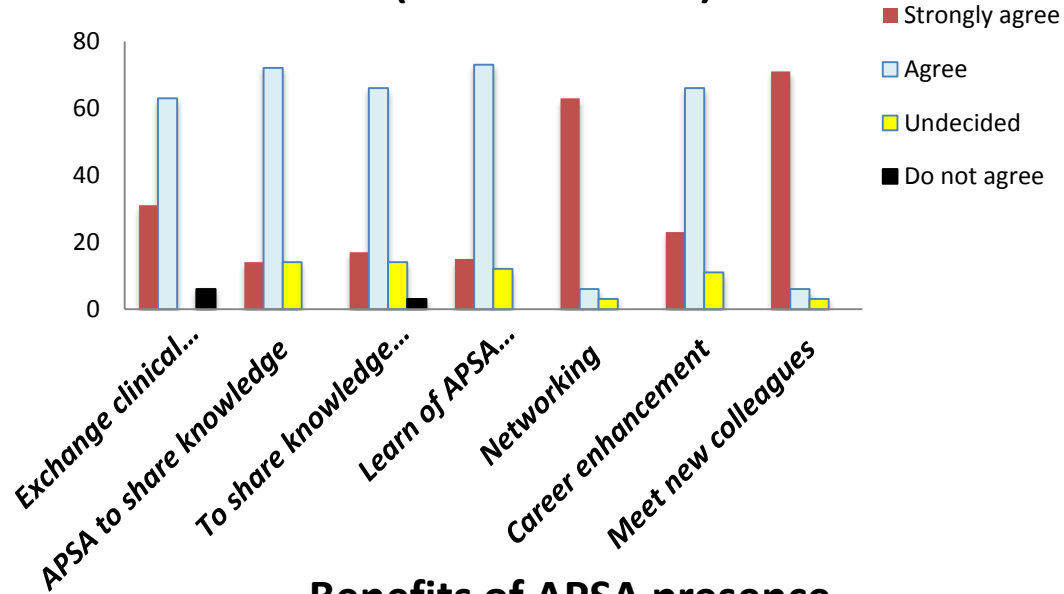

In your opinion, what are the potential benefits of a joint meeting (please circle)

Strongly agree, agree, undecided, do not agree

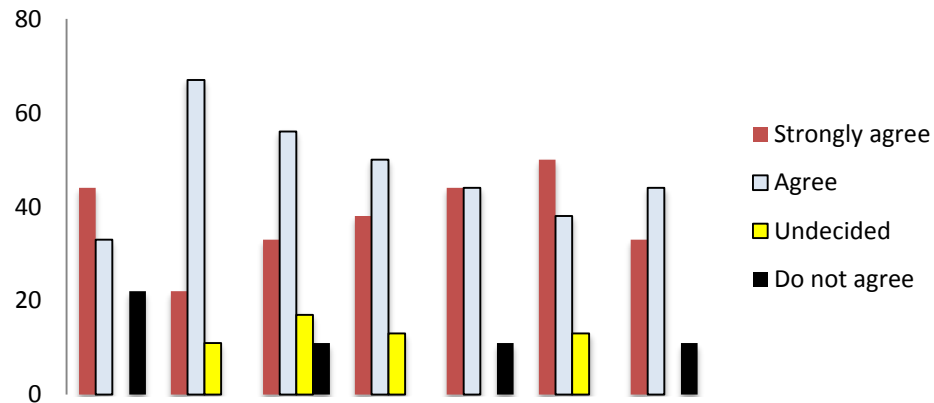

- We exchange our clinical management approaches
- I acquire new knowledge from the American colleagues
- I share my knowledge with the American colleagues
- I learn of various programs of APSA organization
- It enhances my professional networking
- It advances my professional career
- I like to meet international friends
- Others (please describe)

RESULTS

Benefit of APSA presence (% all members)

Benefits of APSA presence (% Perbani leaders)

RESULTS

