

2023 APSA ANNUAL MEETING

Pediatric Surgery Firearm Injury

Research Collaborative Symposium

Tuesday, May 9, 2023

1:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Come a day early to attend this FREE, interactive, in-person symposium

Session Organizer: Marion C.W. Henry, MD MPH, University of Chicago

DESCRIPTION

Firearm injuries are now the leading cause of death of children. As pediatric surgeons, we are on the frontlines of this public health crisis. Our collaborative symposium is meant to introduce efforts that are occurring on a national level through national organizations. Additionally, we will highlight the work of many in the pediatric surgery community and discuss ways that we can come together to continue to address this issue.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

As a result of participating in this activity, attendees will be able to:

- Learn a variety of tactics to approach the public health crisis of firearm injury in children.
- Understand the work that pediatric surgeons are leading in the area of firearm injury prevention and recovery.
- Learn how you can become involved in this critical work area.
- Understand various work that national organizations are doing in the area of firearm injury and prevention.

SYMPOSIUM AGENDA

Update from the National Research Conference December 2022

Heather Hartman, MD, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI

Arielle Thomas, MD MPH, Medical College of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, WI

Educational Programs on Screening

Cornelia Griggs, MD, Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, MA

Impact of Legislation

Jenny Stevens, MD, Louisiana State University, New Orleans, LA

Mental Health Consequences Following Firearm Injury and Children and Adolescents –

What the Pediatric Surgeon Needs to Know

Peter Ehrlich, MD, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI

Having a Pediatric HVIP

Regan Williams, MD, LeBonheur Children’s Hospital, Memphis, TN

Community Outreach and Media

Peter Masiakos, MD, Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, MA

Working on a National Collaborative

Chethan Sathya, MD MS, Cohen Children’s Medical Center, New Hyde Park, New York

ACS Injury Prevention Work and the Second Medical Summit

Brandan Campbell, MD, Connecticut Children’s Medical Center, Hartford, CT

AAP COVIP Work on Firearm Violence

Information from Katherine Flynn O’Brien, MD, Children’s Hospital of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, WI

Presented by: Marion C.W. Henry, MD MPH, University of Chicago, Chicago, IL

Understanding and Utilizing Indices of Socioeconomic Deprivation in Firearm Injuries

Meera Kotagal, MD, Cincinnati Children’s Hospital, Cincinnati, OH

Stephen Trinidad, MD, Cincinnati Children’s Hospital, Cincinnati, OH

